

Exercise: Translate the sentence in French.

1. The French teenagers read lot of comics.

.....

2. In French high school, students need to read poetry.

.....

3. Our teachers always tell us to be better organized.

.....

4. During vacation, I sometimes read a good book.

.....

5. The students say the pledge of allegiance every morning in class.

.....

6. I never say bad words in front of my parents.

.....

7. The teacher reads his emails even the weekend.

.....

8. He usually writes a post card to his family when he goes on vacation.

.....

9. The politicians sometimes tell the truth.

.....

10. You read less and less books at school.

.....

11. The students often read magazines.

.....

12. Pricilla always tells jokes to her friends.

.....

13. We write too much in the French class.

.....

14. For Valentine’s Day, the girls often write a card to their boy-friend.

.....

15. The principal sometimes reads the newspaper.

.....

16. The French students always write with a pen.

.....

17. The teacher always tells his students to study before the exam.

.....

18. Everyday, the teacher writes the date on the board.

.....

19. You (plural) say “hello” to the teacher when you (plural) come to class.

.....

20. In general, students don’t read enough.

.....

21. We usually say that children always tell the truth.

.....

22. Good Catholics say a prayer before eating.

.....

23. The teacher almost never texts.

.....

24. She sometimes tells the truth to her friends.

.....

25. Scientists say that the planet is in danger because of the global warming.

.....